I am submitting the attached images to SNAZAROO in order for them to prepare face painting stamps or stencils. They are listed below with a verbal description. I am aware that copyright laws prevent the duplication on many logos, pictures or images as these are often protected by law. With the submission of these images, that are being provided with the purpose of making a stamp or stencil, I am stating legally that I either own the copyright or I have secured the written permission for this stamp to be made. I personally accept full legal responsibility for the production of this face painting stamp or stencil. Once they are made, no more will be available for anyone to purchase or use unless additional signatures are given. By signing this form, and making a request to have this/these items made, I assume all legal responsibility for the production and use of these products.

A verbal description for each stamp or stencil is to be made and how many copies you want....
